CHARLES H. HOWES

WE DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK TO MR. CHARLES HOWES

His friendly manner and co-operative spirit have made him the best class advisor ever. Much of the credit for our accomplishments as a class must go to him. His versatility extends to many fields: from soccer to dramatics; from sports announcing, to our class activities. We will never forget his willingness to work, his zealous participation in our projects, his amiable smile. Nor will we forget his lighter side: Howes' Bus Service, his aromatic pipe, his appreciation of the feminine half of our class. Time will pass and friendships will be forgotten, but one friend will always be remembered as the guiding light of our high-school years: Charles Howes.

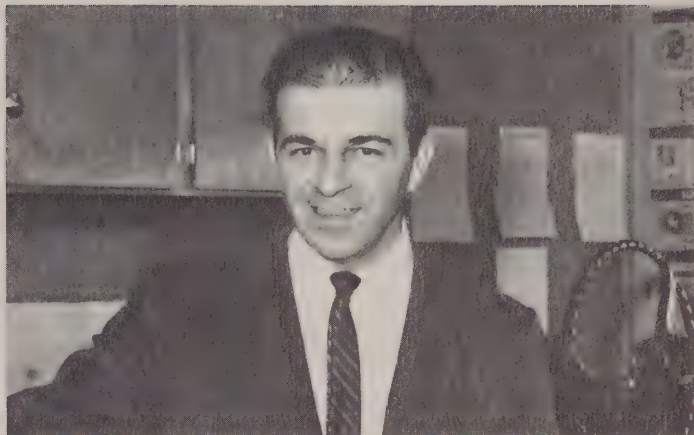

This school lives not only through its students, but also through its faculty. To these of our faculty we give our . . .

SPECIAL THANKS

Mr. Thomas Mazzei has been the energetic vocational school advisor for the Class of 1964. Whenever the occasion demanded, he was ready and willing to donate his time and service. The seniors are grateful for his many contributions to our class projects. To Mr. Mazzei we extend our sincere thanks and good wishes.

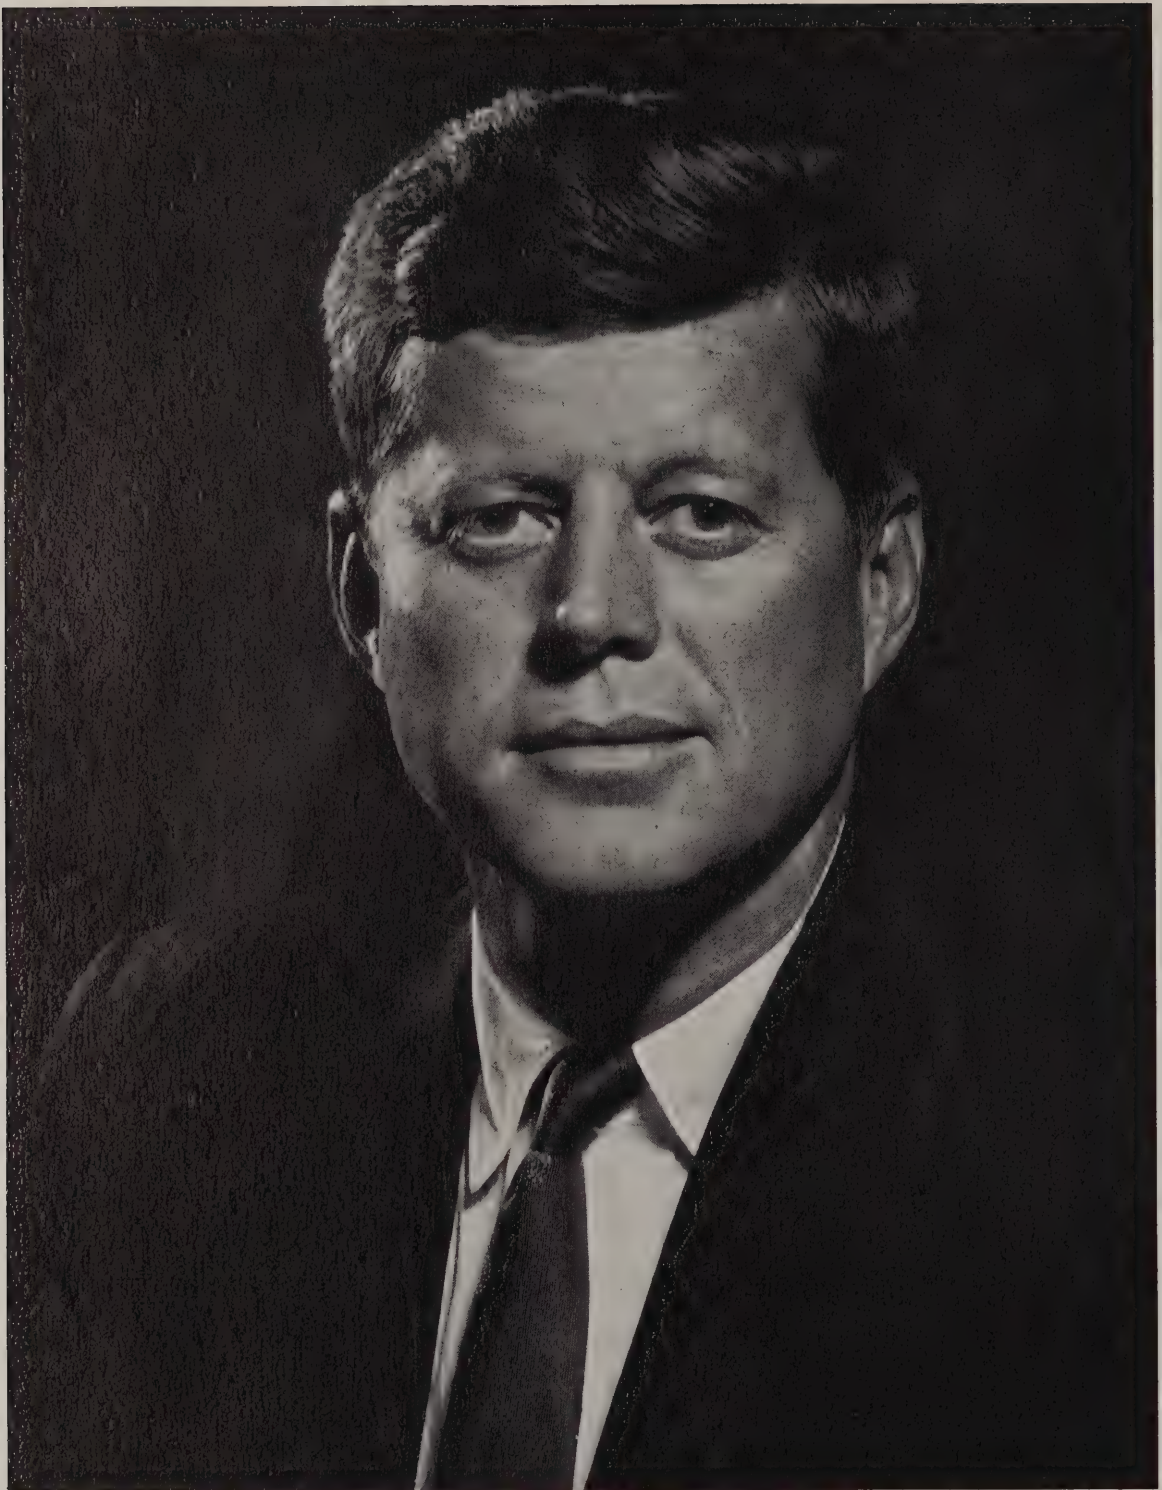

We, the class of 1964, express our appreciation to Miss M. Louise Hayden for her help with our magazine campaign and candy sale. Miss Hayden is also Barnacle Typing Staff advisor and is one of the people to whom we credit our success. She will be remembered by all for her friendly attitude and willingness to help whenever possible. Thank you, Miss Hayden.

Although he has been with us only one year, Mr. James Ruberti has contributed much, not only to our class but to the entire school. He deserves the sincere thanks of our class for the long hours he has spent as the Barnacle advisor. His keen sense of humor and his insistence on a good job have helped us to achieve our goal.

Mrs. Camille Beale, our advertising advisor for the Barnacle, deserves a vote of thanks from our class for her work in the advertising department. Her friendliness and understanding are among the many qualities taught to those fortunate enough to work with her. Thank you, Mrs. Beale, for the assistance you have given us in the past four years.

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Ask not what your country can do for you—ask what can you do for your country.

IN MEMORIAM

A great man, a statesman, a hero, a President: John F. Kennedy was all of these to people the world over. But in our hearts, Mr. Kennedy was not only a devoted husband and loving father, but a neighbor and friend.

The sands of our beaches and the waters off our shores bear no longer the impression of his feet or the wake of his yawl; but in our hearts, each footstep, each turn of the rudder has been permanently recorded as a dear memory of a great man.

ADVERTISEMENTS

As the tides swell and ebb to leave their mark on the sandy shores, so too have our four years at Barnstable High School left a lasting impression on our lives. Each successive wave of new experiences has been crested with knowledge, friendship and accomplishment. Thus imbued, our passage through the sea of uncertainty will be marked by successes, great and small. On the brink of our voyage from this haven, we are confident that the changing tides will bring to our lives the wisdom and faith essential to the achievement of our respective goals that will be realized, in a larger sense, through the patience and understanding of our parents, our teachers, our community.

MR. BRIAH K. CONNOR, PRINCIPAL

Our progress these last four years has been closely interwoven with the efficient leadership of our school. Mr. Connor's duties though numerous and involved have had their impact collectively, and we aspire to uphold the high regard he has for us.

MR. HARVARD H. BROADBENT, SUPER-INTENDENT

The success of our entire school system is this man's success: therein lies the lesson imparted by him. And though he labors at tasks strange to us, their effect is familiar in the harmony which has prevailed these brief years: a gentleman, a leader.

MR. VICTOR E. MAZZARELLA, VOCATIONAL DIRECTOR

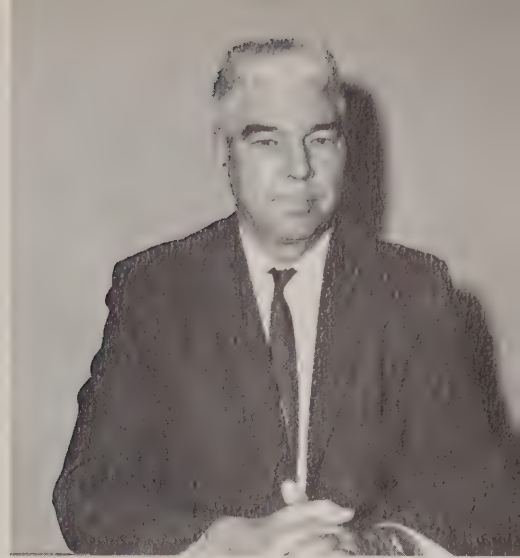

Few of us know him, but what is the knowing? We know of him; and are aware of his worth as an administrator and leader. We feel a loss in having had such a brief time with him; but we are thankful even for that small boon.

Barnacle

Just as a ship plows a course through the crested waves in the open sea, so too has the Class of 1964 traversed its waves of experience at BHS. Now, as we reach for the wave capped with graduation, we look back over our ship's log that records our voyage through high school.

Our first year was one of confusion and hard work. Amid the tasks of starting new courses in a new school and taking standardized tests, we took part in junior varsity sports and student government. To guide us on our way, we elected our freshman officers: James Murray, president; Mark Tribe, vice president; Susan Spinney, secretary; and Frederick Armstrong, treasurer. Mr. Harold Hanewich became our class advisor. Hoisting full sail at once, we decided to add to our coffers by holding a spaghetti supper followed by a softball game and sock hop.

Robert Macallister brought honors to the class as he won a silver medal for his excellence at the Massachusetts Secondary Schools Principals' Association Speech Festival.

The spotlight was on sports as our golf team captured the coveted Cape Cod Championships.

Thus reassured by the success found in our freshman year, we set course for uncharted waters.

Returning from a summer respite from books and homework, we entrusted the helm to the same officers: James Murray was named president, while Mark Tribe, Susan Spinney, and Frederick Armstrong held the offices of vice president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively. Mr. Charles Howes was elected class advisor. To aid in manning the helm, the first underclass executive board at BHS was formed, composed of two delegates from each of our home-rooms.

We further boosted our treasury by running the annual town meeting concession, and by holding a food sale.

Members of our class began to take part in school and club activities. Inducted into the Key Club were Philip Ayers, Eric Hall, Jack Leeman, Robert Macallister, James Murray, Stanley Sokoloski, Stephen Syriala, and Mark Tribe, while the Code Club added Donna Bishop, Constance Hill, Candace Jones, Carol Smith, Melodie Jones, Sandra Logan, Sheila Rogers, and Susan Spinney to its roster.

Academically, our class proved itself outstanding as John Burnett, Priscilla Carlson, Margaret Cash, Nancy Harding, Candace Jones, Nancy Krook, Anneli Karniala, Pamela Hudson, and Roxanne Wilcox were elected to the National Honor Society.

Further honors come as Michael Buckley represented us at the finals in the annual Speech Festival, and John Burnett was chosen to lead the band as its first drum-major in many years.

The newly-formed Drill Team added color to our football games and parades. Marching in intricate formation with colors on high, this new group contributed much to our half-time programs. Tennis became still another spring sport on the calendar, while in other sports we became Tri-County and Cape Cod Champs in football, Cape Softball champs, and Cape Co-champions in golf.

So another year had passed, and we had completed half our journey successfully. The obstacles ahead, awesome in size, would prove or disprove our success in this still-strange sea. We looked onward with expectation.

Captained by John Burnett, we quickly surmounted the next wave with Margaret Cash, vice president; Susan Spinney, secretary; and Mildred Cash, treasurer, as able mates.

After a long summer of impatient waiting, the day finally arrived when we received our class rings. Settling down after the initial excitement of obtaining our rings, we held the annual candy sale to help finance upcoming activities. Leonard Cabral and Alice Garrison were rewarded for their outstanding salesmanship. Book covers and Raider buttons were also money-making items.

When the Christmas vacation finally arrived, we streamed to the rink for our skate hop, "Holiday on Ice." Soon after, preparations for our Junior Prom earnestly got under way.

We elected Donna McGinn and Robert Macallister co-chairmen of our big social event and began work with the advice of Miss Elizabeth Abate. Susan Spinney was chosen queen, and Pamela Hudson, Joyce Huhtanen, Candace Jones, and Roxanne Wilcox became members of her court. After months of hard work huge parasols, decorated paper screens, and beautiful pink and white cherry blossoms reflected in pools of blue water made "Shangri-La" a collection of many cherished and unforgettable moments, contributing to the lustre of our third year.

Our class membership in the school's clubs increased, as Linda Linnell and Roxanne Wilcox were initiated into Code Club, and Robert Crockett and Thomas Murphy were inducted into the Key Club. Lynne Nickerson joined the National Honor Society.

Priscilla Carlson represented Barnstable High School at Girls' State, with Melodie Jones as her alternate. Boys' State delegates were Ronald Christensen and Eric Hall.

Another new institution at BHS was a school newspaper, the Raider Reader. Richard Goutal, a new member of our class, imported his talents as editor, and greatly boosted school spirit with his enthusiastic editorials. Richard began his animated campaign for more spirit with the first edition of the paper, and began to reap results even in this, the paper's first year.

Log

Michael Buckley and Robert Fauteaux brought home silver medals from the Speech Festival for their oratorical excellence. Richard Goutal, Richard Olsen, Paul Stevens, and Mark Tribe also brought distinction to the school as they competed in the finals at the yearly contest. We were also well represented by Richard Olsen in the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

The chorus was opened to the members of our class, and many of the girls joined, adding their voices to the harmony of the group.

Two of our classmates, Anneli Karniala and Roxanne Wilcox, blew the whistles for performances of our championship drill team. Encouraged by faithful fans, another successful sports year was over. We brought home the Cape Cod Championships in football, girls' basketball, and ice hockey and a second place in the State Class D Track Meet. Donald Hallett placed first in the javelin at the state meet. Elected to All-Cape teams were Mark Tribe in football, James Murray in ice hockey, and Stephen Syriala in baseball. Robert Long guided our soccer squad.

Three years had passed. This, our last year, has proven itself by far the most dear and eventful.

Led by President Robert Macallister, Vice President Margaret Cash, Secretary Susan Spinney, and Treasurer Mildred Cash, we launched into the tasks of posing for senior pictures and soliciting magazine subscriptions.

To aid our officers, the members of the class elected Priscilla Carlson, Joanna Gregory, Nancy Krook, Donna McGinn, and Judith Steere to the Senior Executive Board, which has framed policies in lieu of all-too-rare class meetings.

Editor Stephen Syriala and Co-editor Pamela Hudson began work on the Barnacle and under the guidance of Mr. James Ruberti, joined with committees and committee heads in the many hours of late sessions to meet stringent deadlines.

We dominated the Student Council as Constance Hill, Linda Linnell, Carol Fuller, and Carol Smith filled our quota of four members. Miss Hill was a fourth year member, while the Misses Linnell, Fuller and Smith served their third, second, and first years, respectively. Linda Linnell was elected President.

We were well represented on the Trade Council this year, as Donald Baker, serving his third term, was named president, Frederick Rivers was elected vice president, and Craig Morrison was ushered in as secretary. Philip Griswold and Brent Hemeon were also council members, while Richard Bunker served as alternate delegate to this active unit at BHS. Frederick was also sent by the Council as delegate to the Student Council.

This was our year to command the school's service clubs. In the Key Club, Robert Macallister served as president; Philip Ayers, as secretary; and Eric Hall, as treasurer. Officers of the Code Club were Carol Smith, president; Sandra Logan, vice president; and Linda Linnell, treasurer. Peter Kohn and Donald McLean were added to the Key Club role, while Margaret Cash, Anneli Karniala, and Nancy Krook were initiated into Code Club. This year's Key Club Sweethearts were Anneli Karniala and Doreen Williams.

Once again, the Class of 1964 proved itself outstanding as Pamela Hudson and John Burnett qualified as finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program, and Philip Ayers, Robert Crockett, Joanna Gregory, Richard Heeley, Candace Jones, Nancy Krook, Donald McLean, and Susan Wojdylak earned Letters of Commendation.

John Burnett spent four days in Chicago as one of three Cape delegates to the National Youth Conference on the Atom; and Joanna Gregory and Robert Macallister were the honored guests of the telephone company as they acted as "telephone executives for a day." Richard Goutal was Barnstable's able delegate to Student Government Day, Candace Jones was the recipient of the DAR, and Gail Atwood was the winner of the Betty Crocker's Homemaker Award.

One of the highlights of the senior year was the Senior Prom, "Wonderland By Night." Amongst the snow-covered trees and colored stars, Erin O'Neil was crowned queen, Robert Macallister was chosen king, and Anne Marie Fullerton and Carol Fuller served as the attendants.

The enthusiasm of our sport fans was evoked by the cheerleaders, with classmate Wendy Hayes at the helm. A cheerful smile greeted football devotees as Susan Spinney started off our half-time shows at the head of the majorettes. While Frederick Armstrong directed the soccer squad, James Murray and Mark Tribe co-captained the football team. Nancy Panesis was our football queen, and Candace Jones, our senior princess. Making All-Cape teams were Mark Tribe in football; Frederick Armstrong in soccer; and Constance Hill, Candace Jones, and Edwina Pina in field hockey.

These years have meant much to us in every conceivable way. Those efforts expended on our behalf will not go unrewarded, as we have been made to realize fully our responsibilities to ourselves and to those principles imparted by our teachers.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the guidance of Mr. Kilcoyne, has been ably led this year by Linda Linnell, President; Mary Shields, Vice-President; and Jey Jones, Secretary. The Council, whose aim is to promote the better interest of each member of the student body, is a representation of all students. With efficiency and organization, the Council ran the elections for class officers. The members again proved to be a help to the school when they served as guides at the annual Open House in November. This year the Student Council also held a contest to choose the best dressed boys in the upper three classes. The members of the Student Council have represented each student of BHS effectively.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The senior Executive Board, under the guidance of Mr. Charles Howes and Mr. Thomas Mazzei, made it possible for all class affairs to run smoothly and successfully. Since a meeting of the entire class was difficult to arrange, the board, composed of the senior officers, one member from each homeroom, and a vocational school representative, was able to handle efficiently any problems and projects on the agenda.

SITTING: Vice-President M. Cash, President R. Macallister, Secretary S. Spinney, Treasurer M. Cash, Advisor C. Howes. STANDING: J. Steere, J. Gregory, P. Carlson, N. Krook, P. Griswold, D. Frazier, D. McGinn.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Scholarship, a major trait of a National Honor Society member, has been a prime characteristic of our representatives. They have maintained an A average in seventy-five percent of their studies and have earned nothing less than a B in the others. In addition to scholarship, these people have demonstrated leadership and service, qualities conducive to the successful lives undoubtedly ahead of them.

LITERARY STAFF

Although their efforts cannot be considered the acme of literary artistry, the literary staff has put forth a herculean effort to create character sketches, class histories, and other pièces d'art which have slowly metamorphosed into this, our book. The staff, under the Aegis of Phil Ayers, has worked incessantly to make deadlines and has produced reams of written material to fulfill their responsibilities.

LAYOUT STAFF

P. Cash, M. Nolan, P. Carlson, S. Syrial, P. Hudson, M. Cash.

Under the direction of Editor Stephen Syrial and Co-editor Pamela Hudson, the layout committee has set up the final copies for the entire yearbook. Many, many hours were spent after school, especially as the deadlines rolled near, completing the now finished product. Much was done and accomplished by these people, and to them should go the sincere thanks of the entire class.

ART STAFF

FIRST ROW: J. Marquit; M. Nolan, Co-chairman; R. Heeley, Chairman; S. Vagan. SECOND ROW: M. Salazar, A. Marston, M. Turner.

With imagination and skill, the Barnacle art staff has worked long and hard to beautify the yearbook with its penwork. Under the guidance of Richard Heeley and Margaret Nolan, it has sketched the many ideas of various committee members into a reality. Surely the Barnacle would not be as attractive without their contribution.

The Key Club is an organization of high school boys dedicated to service in the school and community. The Key Club has long been active at BHS and this year was no exception. The boys can always be seen selling or collecting tickets at football and basketball games, advertising for a skate hop or just helping out with odd jobs around the school. Key Clubbers are not afraid to work and will gladly do anything that requires intelligent and responsible boys.

At their helm this year: Robert Macallister, president; Ronnie Coville, Vice-president; Eric Hall, treasurer; and Philip Ayers, secretary.

The Barnstable High Code Club is a service organization sponsored by the Rotary Club of Hyannis. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and dependability. Officers during senior year were Carol Smith, president; Martha Bearse, secretary; Sandra Logan, vice president; and Linda Linell, treasurer. Miss Jones was the club's advisor. Working under the motto "Service above self" the Code Club girls performed activities beneficial to the school and the community. Activities have included helping the Care Fund, Needy Children's Fund, ushering at community concerts, and sponsoring a Christmas tea for the teachers and their guests.

Histrionically speaking, the BHS Drama Club has added much to the color and life of our school years. A welcome change in the routine of assemblies, the club's talents, usually comic in deference to Director Howes' sense of humor, have been displayed two or three times a year. The Club consists not only of the cast, but also of the backstage hands, who labor over lighting, design, make-up, and properties. Congratulations to our future "Oscar" winners.

Although recently organized, the Camera Club has accomplished much. With Mr. Cameron as the advisor, the club has taken pictures at school dances, athletic contests, and other social events. The maximum membership is twelve, with replacements only when a member leaves. Mr. Cameron prefers a small group for it is easier to study with, and less confusion means a better finished product. Their assistance was invaluable in aiding the completion of this book.

The biggest social event of our High School years, the Junior Prom, was held in the Barnstable High School Gymnasium on May 10, 1963. The theme of our Prom, "Shangri-La," was carried out with delightful and intricate Japanese decorations. The atmosphere was quite realistic with our bridge and goldfish pond, many blossom-covered trees, and a background of Japanese screens. Miss Elizabeth Abate and Mr. Charles Howes directed the Decoration Committee. Co-chairmen of the prom were Donna McGinn and Robert Macallister. It was a night none of us will soon forget!

TRADE COUNCIL

The Trade Council is the most important organization in the Vocational High School. Composed of a delegate and an alternate from each shop, it functions like a student council. This group is responsible for student behavior and acts accordingly with regard to disciplinary problems.

FFA

This organization specializes in vocational horticulture, the study of plants, trees, and forestry in general. This year's officers include President Richard Bunker, Vice-president Harry Mossey, Treasurer Fred Rivers, Secretary Merrill Setter, Reporter Wayne Parsely, and Sentinel Kenneth DeBarrows.

The FFA of BHS traveled to Norfolk County Agricultural School in Walpole, Massachusetts, where they placed fourth in the Parliamentary Procedure Contest.

Money-making projects include selling refreshments at football games in the fall. With the money earned, the boys bought a pick-up truck to lighten their work.

Not on his head,
Dick!

It is certain that the Raider Reader has left its mark on Barnstable High School: it renewed the tradition of a school newspaper; its inception resulted in an informed student body, and it bolstered school morale.

The Raider Reader was founded in the spring of 1963 by Richard Goutal who served as editor during the 1963-1964 school season. With the constant help and advice of Miss Patricia Palmer, the newspaper published twelve editions a year. Key staff members of the newspaper were sports editor Dennis Meagher, who actively encouraged the school's backing of its teams; June Bettencourt, who was able to report a successful year financially; Gail Atwood, who saw to the circulation of the publication; Evelyn Carlson, who managed the typing department; Carla Procopio, who directed the work of the artists; and Heather Cloud, who innovated the exchange plan with other school newspapers.

CHORUS

The all-girl Senior Chorus, directed by Mr. Simon Gesin, has made many contributions to our school. Their assemblies during the Christmas season and spring brought memorable moments of pleasure to all.

At the close of our senior year, Mr. Gesin, using mainly Senior Chorus members, directed the graduation chorus which sang during the commencement program. Our girls certainly insured our having a memorable graduation by their skilled performance.

ORCHESTRA

Throughout the past four years, the music of the BHS orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Jennings Butterfield, has brought enjoyment to many assemblies and activities. This group is made up of approximately twenty talented musicians from every class. Aside from performing in assemblies, various students represented our school in the Southeastern Music Festival. These people were chosen on their ability to play well alone and with other groups.

SEATED: G. Court, C. Clement, B. Farrenkoph, J. Healy, L. Marsland, S. Bryant, C. Jones, G. Schmidt, Director J. Butterfield. SECOND ROW: W. MacDowell, B. Gerald, K. Fardy, M. VanLeuwen, L. Sou-

BAND AND MAJORETTES

Down the football field strut the band and Majorettes always performing new and intricate routines. But their appearances are not limited to the football field; they are seen in parades, rallies, and concerts. For the first time, a Band Executive Board was formed, comprised of the head majorette, the drum-major, and a band member from each of the four classes. The purpose of the Board is to plan the various programs. Another "first" was the addition of twirling red flags made by the majorettes. This group deserves much credit for the hours of practice devoted to preparation for many different programs.

SPEECH FESTIVAL

SEATED: L. Pukki, M. Buckley, J. Gregory, R. Coville, E. Grayson, Mr. R. Warren, Coach; S. Adams, J. Leonard, R. Gallagher, S. Morrison. STANDING: N. Holder, G. Schmidt, W. Kennedy, K. Sullivan, W. Howes, R. Fauteaux, R. Olson, R. Goutal, J. Burnett, M. White, L. Senno, J. Goode, J. Stackhouse.

The preliminary round of the Massachusetts Speech Festival was held at Braintree High School on February 29, 1964. The festival included two persons in each of the following categories: girls' and boys' extemporaneous speaking, original oratory, poetry reading, prose reading, humorous prose reading, radio broadcasting, and group discussion. In the three rounds of the preliminaries, a participant must get two excellents and a superior, one excellent and two superiors, or three superiors to qualify for the finals. In the finals, the last two categories merit silver and gold medals respectively. Barnstable High has been well represented by medalists in the past and with continued effort, will be in the future.

DISTRICT MUSIC

Does a music festival equal square music, the classical stuff? By no means! You name it, it's there—folk songs, jazz, show tunes, marches, and a little of the classical for variety. Like singing: band? orchestra? It's all there. And these kids are terrific—their concert is just great. That's right—their concert. The biggest thrill is for the participants. Music is to them like skiing or surfing or horse races are to someone else. For two years our class has been represented at the music festival in 1963 by Gail Schmidt and Leon Souweine and in 1964 by the kids in the picture.

Left to Right: B. Childs, C. Smith, L. Clough, G. Schmidt, P. Hudson, L. Souweine.

Cafeteria B was truly transformed into a "wonderland" on January 17, the night of our Senior Prom. Snow-covered trees and rustic benches lined the walls of the starlit cafeteria. The bright red sleigh made an appropriate throne for Queen Erin O'Neil and King Robert Macallister with princesses Carol Fuller and Anne Marie Fullerton. The variety of music provided by the Five Aces added to the informal air which made the night truly enjoyable.

A little "serious" thinking before the board talk.

Barnstable High School has always been proud of its football team. The Class of '64 is, by no means, an exception. Our teams won the Tri-County Championships in 1961 and 1962; many of our classmates played in those contests.

Coaches John Parker, Ray Hostetter, and James Ruberti prepared the team well, for when the dust had cleared, Barnstable often came up with the decisive victories.

This year's club, though considerably weakened by a succession of injuries to key personnel, performed beautifully in every phase of the game.

The team co-captains, Mark Tribe and Jimmy Murray, were exemplary with regard to the field leadership displayed.

SOCCER

Our back-to-the-camera soccer team experienced a very successful season. Led ably by Coach Charles Howes and Captain Ted Armstrong, the Red Raiders compiled a solid 5—4—3 record good for third place in the Cape loop. The Barnstable booters' most impressive win was a 2—0 blanking of second place Harwich. Congratulations go to high scorers Pete Kohn, John Johnson, Jim McEvoy, and Ron St. Coeur; and All-stars Russ Milne, Pete Kohn, Ted Armstrong, and John Johnson.

FIELD HOCKEY

The field hockey team, under the guidance of Coach Katherine Nehubian, finished second in the Cape Schoolgirl Field Hockey League with a 4 and 2 record. Though the 1963 season was not exceptional, the girls never lost heart, as can be attested by the outcome of the games. The sportsmanship, poise, and confidence demonstrated by the girls will undoubtedly assist them in their future years.

Alright! Alright! We'll get 'em next time!

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading Captain Wendy Hayes.

The cheerleading squad, which was led by Captain Wendy Hayes, did an outstanding job in maintaining school spirit at BHS. The girls, with their peppiness and skill, proved to be an important part of sports activities. Their long practice hours were rewarded by our enthusiastic and resounding responses during our athletic contests.

DRILL TEAM

The Drill Team, led by Miss Katherine Nehubian, has provided excellent entertainment during the halves of many football games. Their long hours of diligent practice were certainly worthwhile as all who watched them agree. The girls also served as a devoted pep squad, cheering their hearts out at all the games. The great enthusiasm was evident during the rallies, especially on the night before the traditional Thanksgiving Day game with Falmouth. Through their participation in this activity, the girls have acquired invaluable skill, poise, and sportsmanship.

ICE HOCKEY

The Barnstable High School ice hockey team under the tutelage of Elliot MacSwan and the leadership of captain Bob Macallister, experienced another successful season by again finishing first in the Cape Schoolboy League. After last year's invitation to the State Tourney, more off-Cape games were scheduled to insure ourselves of another berth.

This year's impressive record was due to the high scoring offense and a solid defense.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Coach "Dinnie" Dwyer's boys experienced an extremely frustrating season in what could be termed a "building" year. Our boys playing under extreme pressure played great ball but lacked sufficient depth to follow through in a few crucial contests. Our respect and gratitude are extended to a team and coach who did outstanding work for themselves and BHS.

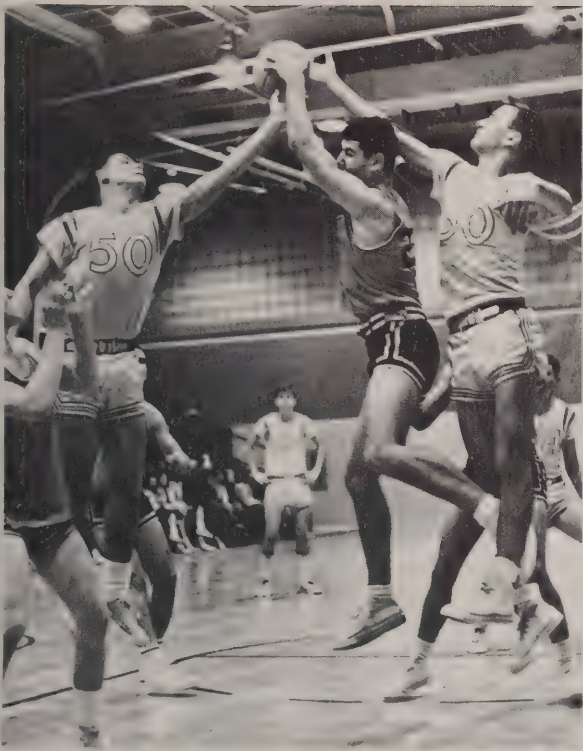

Captain D. Hallett and Coach F. Dwyer.

The foe did make their presence known.

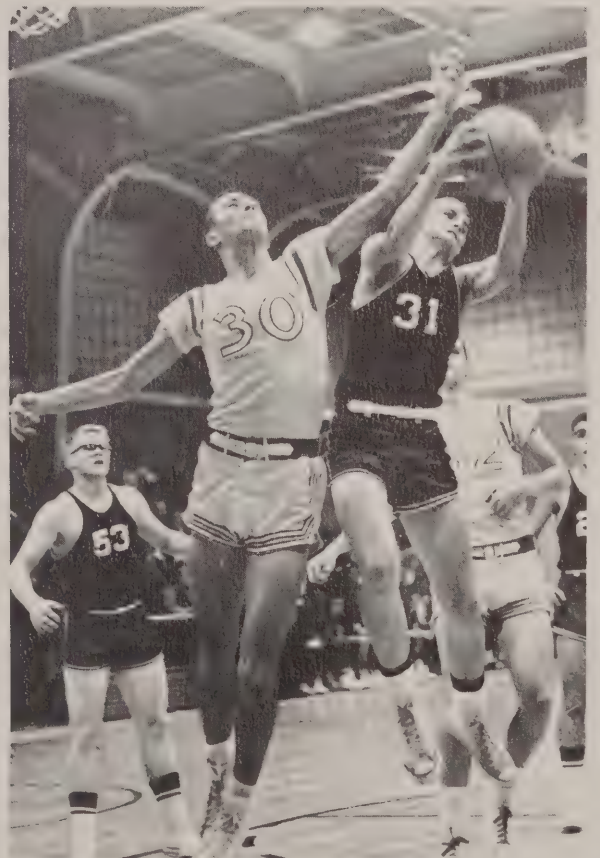

Double stuff!!

You "blubbering idiots!"

Having won the Cape Cod Principal's Tournament championship in a closely fought contest in 1963, the Raiderettes almost won it again in 1964. Skilled thoroughly in the fundamentals of the game, our girls make good use of this knowledge in competition. This, combined with quick thinking, makes them a formidable foe indeed.

No, you can't have your oranges now!

Booby jumps for another two points.

Don't cry, now. You must share your toys.

KNEELING: F. Krook, E. Monteiro, S. Hinkley, C. Jones, M. Flynn. STANDING: C. Long, J. Hopkins, R. Wilcox, E. Pina, C. Hill, C. Howes, A. Karniala.

BASEBALL

One of our most successful yet least appreciated teams, the baseball squad, under the able leadership of Coach Richard Gleason, has always evinced the excellent play for which Barnstable High is noted. Though we usually lose half our varsity squad each year through graduation, the team usually fares extremely well. This squad and all those to follow under Coach Gleason will know naught but success.

SOFTBALL

Under the able command of Coach Katherine Nehubian, the BHS softball squad has consistently come up with win after win to earn or tie for many cherished championships. A hard-hitting and high-scoring team, this squad will always mean success for Barnstable sports fans.

With Don Hallett and Milt Salazar placing high in the 1963 Class D Meet, the BHS track team brought home honors with a good second. Whether in dual or triangular meets, the team has consistently scored high. Although it is losing some good men through graduation, the team will doubtlessly post good seasons for many years to come.

GOLF

R. Gallagher, L. Harmon, R. Coville, S. Sokoloski, Coach A. Rogean.

Fore-ward down the fairway drives the BHS golf team! A consistent trophy winner, the team has shot its way to fame in the Cape circuit. With pars and birdies to spare, the squad is sure to impress onlookers for years to come.

TENNIS

Our tennis groups, directed by Mr. Eldon Lawson, have been very successful in terms of the numbers of pupils participating. Over one hundred students turned out for practice. The program was almost entirely intramural with instruction given and matches played within the group. However, Mr. Lawson was able to schedule some matches with Falmouth. Four matches were played in 1963, two for the girls and two for the boys. Although all the matches went to Falmouth, the experience was enjoyable and valuable.

KNEELING: K. Sullivan, P. Vuilleumier, W. Dalrymple. STANDING: Coach Lawson, G. Soutiere, P. Cross, R. Johnson, T. Murphy.
